

New National Award for Excellence in Human Research Protection

Health Improvement Institute (Institute) is pleased to announce a national new awards program — Award for Excellence in Human Research Protection. The federal Office of Human Research Protection (OHRP) is the award program's founding sponsor. Institutions and individuals are eligible to enter the annual awards competition. Awards will be given for demonstrated excellence in promoting the well-being of people who volunteer to participate in research. The Institute is planning to make the first awards in December 2002. This letter solicits your participation in the awards program.

Health Improvement Institute is a tax-exempt, 501(c)3 research and educational organization. The Institute conducts forums on emerging treatments and sponsors national awards to recognize excellence in health communications. If you have any questions about the Award for Excellence in Human Research Protection, please contact Kristin Hollingsworth at 301-652-1818 or by email at kjh@mcman.com. For more information on:
